

Title: Strangulation and the Forensic Patient

Presented by: Emma Pinkerton BSN, RN, CPN, SANE-A

Date: Enduring start: 15MARCH2022

Time: N/A

Location: N/A

Expiration Date of Activity (Enduring Materials Only): 31DECEMBER2022

Learning Outcome(s): Participants will be able to state 3 different causes of delayed fatality for the strangulation.

- List 2 different long-term health consequences of strangulation.
- List 5 of the most common signs or symptoms experienced post-strangulation.
- Participants will provide evidence of increased knowledge of strangulation by passing a post-test with a score of 80% or greater.

Requirements for successful completion of the educational activity:

- Completion/submission of evaluation form (must be used)
- Attendance for 100% of activity
- Successful completion of a post-test - attendee must score 80% or higher

Contact hour(s) provided: 1.75