Confidentiality Statement

University of Colorado Health (UCHealth)¹ employees and all other individuals who have access to confidential UCHealth information are required to keep this information confidential. Patient information, employee records, computer passwords, and proprietary business information are all examples of confidential information. Computer passwords may never be shared. Other confidential information may be shared with other individuals who need to know the information in order to perform their jobs. However, the fact that someone is working at UCHealth does not mean that the individuals has a right to confidential information if it is not required for job-related purposes. Each individual must at all times act carefully, in good faith, in a manner which promotes the best interests of the UCHealth and its patients, and in a way that recognizes and promotes ethical considerations and the duty of loyalty that each individual owes to UCHealth.

Patient information or proprietary business information may be disclosed only in accordance with UCHealth policies. Employee records may be disclosed only in accordance with UCHealth policies or as approved by Human Resources. The Health Information Management Department is responsible for all releases of patient information to outside parties. If in doubt, you should act to preserve the confidence of the information requested until UCHealth policies can be verified. You should refrain from discussing or disclosing confidential information except as necessary to promote the legitimate business of the UCHealth. Disclosing confidential information in violation of UCHealth policies or in violation of law may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment or, for individuals who are not employed by University of Colorado Health, termination of access to UCHealth's information systems and/or UCHealth facilities. There are various federal and state laws which mandate that patient information be kept confidential and, in some instances, impose civil or criminal penalties for a breach of confidentiality. For example, Colorado Revised Statutes section 18-4-412 makes it a felony to obtain or disclose medical records without proper authorization.

No individual is permitted to realize any personal gain as a result of disclosing or using confidential information. This duty of nondisclosure and the obligation not to benefit from confidential information learned during the course of your employment or while you are working in the Hospital continues indefinitely, even after your employment or business arrangement with the Hospital ends.

Statement of Understanding

I have read and understand the above Confidentiality Statement and I agree to comply with it. I understand that a violation of any part of the Confidentiality Statement may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment or, for individuals who are not employed by UCHealth, termination of access to UCHealth's information systems and/or UCHealth facilities.

DISCLOSURE REGARDING BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION

UCHealth ("the Company") may obtain information about you from a third party consumer reporting agency for employment purposes. Thus, you may be the subject of a "consumer report" and/or an "investigative consumer report" which may include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and/or mode of living, and which can involve personal interviews with sources such as your neighbors, friends, or associates. These reports may contain information regarding your criminal history, social security verification, motor vehicle records ("driving records"), verification of your education or employment history, or other background checks.

You have the right, upon written request made within a reasonable time, to request whether a consumer report has been run about you, and disclosure of the nature and scope of any investigative consumer report and to request a copy of your report. Please be advised that the nature and scope of the most common form of investigative consumer report is an employment history or verification. These searches will be conducted by Universal Background Screening, Inc., Post Office Box 5920, Scottsdale, AZ 85261, 1-877-263-8033, www.universalbackground.com. The scope of this disclosure is all-encompassing, however, allowing the Company to obtain from any outside organization all manner of consumer reports throughout the course of your employment to the extent permitted by law.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND AUTHORIZATION FOR BACKGROUND CHECK

I acknowledge receipt of the separate document entitled DISCLOSURE REGARDING BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION and A SUMMARY OF YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT and certify that I have read and understand both of those documents. I hereby authorize the obtaining of "consumer reports" and/or "investigative consumer reports" by UCHealth ("the Company") at any time after receipt of this authorization and throughout my employment, if applicable. To this end, I hereby authorize, without reservation, any law enforcement agency, administrator, state or federal agency, institution, school or university (public or private), information service bureau, employer, or insurance company to furnish any and all background information requested by Universal Background Screening, Inc., Post Office Box 5920, Scottsdale, AZ 85261, 1-877-263-8033, www.universalbackground.com, and/or the Company itself. I agree that a facsimile ("fax"), electronic or photographic copy of this Authorization shall be as valid as the original.

New York applicants only: Upon request, you will be informed whether or not a consumer report was requested by the Company, and if such report was requested, informed of the name and address of the consumer reporting agency that furnished the report. You have the right to inspect and receive a copy of any investigative consumer report requested by the Company by contacting the consumer reporting agency identified above directly. By signing below, you acknowledge receipt of Article 23-A of the New York Correction Law.

Washington State applicants only: You also have the right to request from the consumer reporting agency a written summary of your rights and remedies under the Washington Fair Credit Reporting Act.

Minnesota and Oklahoma applicants only: Please check this box if you would like to receive a copy of a consumer report if one is obtained by the Company.

California applicants or employees only: Under California Civil Code section 1786.22, you are entitled to find out what is in the CRA's file on you with proper identification, as follows:

- In person, by visual inspection of your file during normal business hours and on reasonable notice. You also may request a copy of the information in person. The CRA may not charge you more than the actual copying costs for providing you with a copy of your file.
- A summary of all information contained in the CRA file on you that is required to be provided by the California Civil Code will be provided to you via telephone, if you have made a written request, with proper identification, for telephone disclosure, and the toll charge, if any, for the telephone call is prepaid by or charged directly to you.
- By requesting a copy be sent to a specified addressee by certified mail. CRAs complying with requests for certified mailings shall not be liable for disclosures to third parties caused by mishandling of mail after such mailings leave the CRAs.

"Proper Identification" includes documents such as a valid driver's license, social security account number, military identification card, and credit cards. Only if you cannot identify yourself with such information may the CRA require additional information concerning your employment and personal or family history in order to verify your identity. The CRA will provide trained personnel to explain any information furnished to you and will provide a written explanation of any coded information contained in files maintained on you. This written explanation will be provided whenever a file is provided to you for visual inspection. You may be accompanied by one other person of your choosing, who must furnish reasonable identification. A CRA may require you to furnish a written statement granting permission to the CRA to discuss your file in such person's presence.

Please check this box if you would like to receive a copy of an investigative consumer report or consumer credit report at no charge if one is obtained by the Company whenever you have a right to receive such a copy under California law.
