COVID-19 Monoclonal Antibody Pathway

Does patient meet ALL of the following FDA EUA indications?

1. Symptomatic mild to moderate laboratory-confirmed COVID-19 infection with symptom onset within past 10 days, AND
2. Age 12 or older, AND
3. Weighs at least 40 kg, AND
4. Is NOT hospitalized, AND
5. Is NOT pregnant, AND
6. Does NOT require new oxygen therapy / does NOT have an increase in baseline oxygen flow rate due to COVID-19, AND
7. Has ANY ONE of the following high-risk criteria:
   - BMI ≥35, OR
   - Chronic kidney disease, OR
   - Diabetes mellitus, OR
   - Immunocompromised state, OR
   - Age ≥65 years, OR
   - Age ≥55 years WITH cardiovascular disease, hypertension, or COPD/other chronic respiratory disease, OR
   - Age 12-17 years WITH BMI ≥ 85th percentile, sickle cell disease, congenital or acquired heart disease, medical-related technological dependence (e.g. tracheostomy), asthma, reactive airway disease, or other chronic respiratory disease that requires daily medication for control

If treatment allocated

If patient agrees

Enter patient in state random allocation process

Infusion center will call patient to schedule

Got an error message?

Try copying and pasting this link into a browser on your computer (outside of Epic):
https://cdphe.redcap.state.co.us/surveys/?s=PX5JW9CIEET

Go back to COVID-19 Ambulatory Pathway.